Was in Torture all the Time.
Had Pains in His Back.

Dr. Fenner, Fredonia, N. Y.
Dear Sir:—Some six months ago a friend recommended to me your justly celebrated Kidney and Backache Cure. I was at that time suffering intensely from pains in my back.

My work daily aggravated the complaint and I was in torture all the time. After taking two bottles of your medicine I was relieved and two more completely cured me. I feel like a new man now, thanks to your Remedy, and unhesitatingly recommend it to those suffering as I was.

Sincerely yours,
Howard Sproule,

In addition to the numerous facilities provided for the comfort and pleasure of Florida travelers, the Southern Railway and Queen & Crescent Route have this year added a new and unusually attractive feature in the form of a variable route tourist ticket, by means of which, at a slight additional expense, the going trip may be made via Chattanooga, Atlanta and Macon and the return trip via Savannah, Columbia, Asheville, Hot Springs and Knoxville—or vice versa—including stop off, if desired, at all of these and other points, so that a passenger may visit Lookout Mountain, the beautiful "Sapphire Country," the "Land of the Sky" and the principle commercial centers and tourist resorts en route.

Popular Australian Churchmen.
One of the most popular men in Australia is Monsignore O'Hara, now nearly 90 years old and long known all over the big south Pacific island as "the sporting prelate." Lucky land speculation many years ago made him one of the richest men in Victoria. He was a dashing horseman in his day, and never missed a Melbourne cup day, the great Australian racing festival. Indeed, rumor has it that on more than one occasion he ran horses for that coveted trophy—under assumed names. He attended so many Protestant and Episcopal gatherings that rigid Catholics occasionally looked askance at him, but he has always been immensely popular with the vast majority of those professing the same faith.

Not a Live American Boy.
"Wanted—A boy who never saw a baseball game; one who does not know the difference between third base and a foul ball. To such an office attachment a liberal salary will be paid.—Hudson Register." What for? A boy answering such plans and specifications as that would not be worth his salt. He wouldn't be worth the powder to blow him up. He would be too dead to bury. He would not have life enough to crawl off and die. No, no—what the world wants is live American boys, who will get to the ball game and the circus when they are boys and to the front of the procession when they get to be men.

Pioneer Woman Dentist.
Dr. Elvira Castner of Marienfelde, near Berlin, who was one of the first German women to come to this country to study a profession closed to her in Germany, has given up her profession of dentistry after many years of successful work, and is devoting herself to a school of horticulture for women founded by herself. There are now a number of women dentists in Germany.

Theatrical Notes.

The Howard-Dorset company, recognized as the leaders in repertoire, has enjoyed four years of uninterrupted popularity, and now begins its fifth season in brand new plays, with many taking novelties in the matter of musical specialties and scenic effects. It is promised that the company this season will far exceed any former company that Mr. Howard has ever had. Much interest has been manifested in the coming of this clever company. The opening play, "The Eagle's Nest" tonight will be staged with all the picturesqueness of that period of time, and a meritorious presentation will be looked for by this well balanced company. With the Howard-Dorset company an evening of splendid entertainment interpreted by the very best artists obtainable in repertoire was what may be expected, this favorite company being the attraction. Specialties of a highly entertaining order will be given between acts, also illustrated songs and moving pictures.

The New York Dramatic Mirror says something which should be read here as well as elsewhere: Signor Caruso refused in the Metropolitan opera house to sing over again his monologue at the end of Act I of Pagliacci, last Friday night, deeming it to be inartistic, and the audience roared and yelled until the management was forced to call the police, when Signor Caruso nodded to Arturo Vigna, the conductor of the orchestra, and sang, to save his insulters in the audience from broken heads from the clubs of the police. "There are schools for playwrights, journalists, actors—why not one for audiences? Most of them need a lot of educating and display an amount of ill breeding that is appalling. "One thing should be insisted upon by the managers: double prices for double entertainment. That would make considerate audiences out of the boorish quicker than anything else."

Nat M. Wills, who was here in "A Son of Rest" last month, proved himself a hero at the Grand theater, in Kansas City, Friday night by preventing a panic. A small blaze started the audience to its feet, but Mr. Wills quickly shouted that 600 people had been tramped to death or shut off from escape by a stampede in Chicago and the audience quickly subsided and the fire was out in a few seconds.

Prof. Wm. Deal, leader of the Kentucky orchestra, has inaugurated something new. He has a card posted during the playing of every number, giving the name of the selection.

Mr. John F. Bragg, of Louisville, who gets up amateur theatricals, is in the city and may arrange to get up something here.
